Thorndale Man Found Dead; Suicide Ruled

A Thorndale man was found dead in the garage of his sister's home at Thorndale last Thursday afternoon. He had apparently committed suicide by hanging himself from a ceiling brace on the garage door.

Joel Edgar Smith, of 204 North Cornelius in Thorndale, was found by his sister at 1:45 p.m. Thursday in the garage of her home. He had hanged himself with two small ropes.

A ruling of death by suicide by hanging was made by Justice of Peace Brock.

Sheriff Carl Black said Smith's sister told officers at the inquest held in the Thorndale home that her brother had eaten lunch and then gone out. When she looked for him a short time later she found him dead. She said Smith had been living with her for about a year, and had gone to McClosky Hospital at Temple on Wednesday for a checkup. He had not talked to her about the checkup, or mentioned anything that may have had a bearing on the suicide.

Demonstration Set For Young Farmers On Tractor Safety

Members of the Cameron Young Farmers will have an opportunity to see for themselves the false sense of security man may have while operating a farm tractor. A graphic demonstration using miniature tractors and equipment will be used to illustrate the actual occurrences at 7 p.m. Tuesday, January 28, at the Yoe High Vocational Agriculture Building. The public is also invited.

Joe Smetana, director of the Texas Farm Bureau Safety Department, will show slides detailing causes of common natural occurrences. He will be assisted by Ben Bullard, assistant director.

Things that will be pointed out in the program include overruns and rearward upsets, hitching and unhitching, speed, horseplay, refueling, use of the SMV emblem, use of the roll-guard and crush-proof cab for operator protection, seatbelts, maintenance and extra passengers, plus other contributing factors to accident prevention.

Approximately 1,000 farm people are killed each year on farm tractors and machinery, while over 750,000 or more are injured seriously. Texas farms are the scenes of some 25 or 30 tractor fatalities and 20 to 25 farm machinery fatalities each year.

St. Edward Hospital Fund Gains $12,477

St. Edward Hospital Development Fund shows a steady gain in pledges and contributions, with a total $12,477 in the fund as of January 21.

Sister Kostka, hospital administrator, said the Christmas holidays had slowed contributions somewhat but the January total shows a gain of $12,477 over the December 19 figure last year.

Robert Ellett, chairman of the drive, said a $5,900 contribution was made to the hospital fund by Texas Power and Light Company.

Yoe High Band To Record Album

The award winning Yoe High School Bands (from 1957 to present) will be available in full stereo sound in a two-record, long-play album. The records will be available in March.

Bob Carney, Yoe High Band Director, said the album will be a memorial to the late Francis Cox, director of the Yoe High School band from 1932 until his death in September.

One record in the album will be devoted to concert numbers played by bands in 1957, 1961, 1963, 1965, 1966 and 1968. Carney said band students from 1954 through 1968 will be represented on the recording.

The present band will have seven selections on the second record. They will be "On Yoe High," "Navy Hymn," four marches and a concert number. Three of the selections were presented in the Christmas concert this year.

Carney said the 101-member band is in rehearsal for the reording which is scheduled to be made February 18. He has completed the job of editing back tapes for the recording of previous bands. Still to be decided is the album cover.

Century Custom Recording Co. of California will cut the records.

The album will sell for $7 and proceeds will be used to buy overlays for the concert band uniform. The Band Boosters Club will take reserve orders for recordings, beginning in March. They will go on sale over the counter March 22. Carney said there would be a limited supply of albums available.

Mrs. Carney Joins Herald Office Staff

Mrs. Bob Carney, 26, of Cameron, is assuming duties as bookkeeper in the business department of The Cameron Herald.

A graduate of Tyler Junior College, she is the wife of Bob Carney, recently employed as band director of Yoe High School. They have a daughter, Kimberly Anne, 3.

Mrs. Carney succeeds Mrs. Milton Curtis, of Rockdale who has taken a position in Austin after five years on The Herald staff.

Mrs. Carney has four years previous business experience with Retail Merchants Assoc., of Corsicana, Castleberry Independent School District, and Radio Shack Corp., of Fort Worth.

Bank Announces Exec Promotions

Cameron's First National Bank has announced executive promotions for four staff members and has named Mrs. Lester Williams to the board of directors.

The bank is undergoing a major modernization and expansion program.

Mrs. Williams, wife of bank president Lester Williams, will be the first woman to serve on the bank's board and one of the few on a Central Texas bank board.

Williams also announced that Ed Manning, cashier since 1952, has been promoted to vice president.

Mrs. Janice Turner, bank secretary now in charge of various types of loans, has been named assistant vice president, again one of the few woman bank executives in the state.

William Dockall, 29, a veteran of nine years in various bank departments, has been named cashier, succeeding Manning.

Named assistant cashier is Miss Sylvia Schattle, a bank teller, who has been employed at First National since 1964.

She joins Mrs. Lilly McWilliams as a bank assistant cashier.

Miss Schattle, a 1963 graduate of Milano High School, moved to bank teller in June, 1968 after several years in bookkeeping and other departments.

Manning is a graduate of Yoe High School and has served in the U. S. Navy for two years as disbursing storekeeper aboard the USS Latimer. He is active in the Episcopal Church and a member of Cameron Country Club.

Before joining the bank staff, he was credit manager for a wholesale grocery concern. He was cashier of First National since 1952.

Mrs. Turner graduated from Yoe High School in 1958. She attended Durham's Business School

Rev. Ben Pierce Named Pastor Of Church At San Augustine

Rev. Pierce came to Cameron from Wills Point in June, 1967, and has been active in local civic organizations. He was a member of Cameron Rotary Club and served as president of Cameron Ministerial Association.

Rev. Pierce's transfer is one of several being effected in the Texas Conference at this time. The present pastor at San Augustine resigned to take a position at Asbury Theological Institute in Kentucky.

Rev. Alvis Coleman of Newton has been named to replace Rev. Pierce as pastor at Cameron's First Methodist Church.

Committee Head Writes . . .

COPSE Report Analyzed

(Editor's note: This is the first of a two-part series on the controversial recommendations of the Committee on Public School Education. School district realignment is discussed in an excerpt from a letter from Committee Chairman Leon Jaworski.)

Bills to carry out recommendations of the Committee on Public School Education will be introduced to the Texas Legislature by Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston and Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi.

Announcement came in a letter from Leon Jaworski, chairman of COPSE. The letter discussed three aspects of the program which have produced the most controversy in newspaper comments and letters received by the Committee.

Chairman Jaworski's comment on realignment of school district boundaries follows:

Apparently, some people in rural communities believe that our recommendations would have the following damaging results for their school children:

1. That all small local schools would be eliminated and all students forced to attend large, central school buildings;

2. That most students would be required to travel long distances by school bus;

3. That attending huge, central schools would promote delinquency, dropouts, drug addiction and other immoral behavior by their children; and

4. That changing school district administrative boundaries would mean the end of most rural and small town communities.

The realignment of school district boundaries may or may not affect individual schools and school attendance areas. Decisions on the continuation of existing schools or the construction of new ones are always made by the elected school boards of reorganized districts.

They are to be based on considerations such as the cost and quality of programs and facilities and the convenience of students and parents. No school board dis-

DATE SET FOR HEARING ON NORTH AREA

The City Council voted unanimously Tuesday night to continue incorporation proceedings for an area north of the present city limits, and turned down a consideration of proposed area west of Cameron.

A public hearing will be held February 19 at City Hall to present the proposals after work is completed by City Atty. Ed Magre.

The resolution proposing incorporation of the two areas was read at the December 19 council meeting.

The northern area would include:

"An area beginning at intersection of West 22nd Street and Fannin Street, thence north along Silver City Road to a point at Northeast boundary of City Airport property west across Highway 77-100 to the western limits of Southern Pacific Railroad property; thence south to the Door Factory Road; thence west to a point which would intersect City of Cameron western limits; thence south to present city limit boundary on West 22nd Street (Dump Ground Road)."

Mayor E. A. Perrin said incorporation proceedings will only follow a public hearing and final favorable vote of the Council.

In a 1-3 vote, the Council turned down consideration of annexing the area west of Cameron:

"...bounded on the east by Columbus Avenue, from an intersection of Columbus Avenue and Highway 36-190 to extend west to the Auction Barn Road; thence down Auction Barn Road to the intersection of Farm to Market Road (Old Temple Highway) and ending at the corner of West Batte Street and Columbus Avenue."

In other Council action, purchase of 600 feet of fire hose for Cameron Fire Department was authorized, and routine bills were approved.

The Council also ordered an election for April 1 when three Council places will be filled. Terms of Starrett Hickman, Lawrence Zolt and Robert Clark will expire at that time.

Elm Creek Authority Elects Two Directors

Two new directors were elected to the Elm Creek Watershed Authority board in an election held January 14. They are Reuben Mikeska and Robert Dana.

Officers elected to head the board of directors are Edward Coufal, president; A. C. Akerage, vice president; and Frank Kratochvil, secretary-treasurer.

Robert Hoelscher and Kratochvil were re-elected to the board.

Mine will be the good fortune to meet Astronauts Frank Borman, James Lovell and William Anders at a Texas Press Association function in Houston this weekend. They will be honored at the Association's mid-winter meeting.

In all the change and challenge of journalism, the remarkable thing is that even the weekly press may meet the millennium's biggest newsmakers in person.

HOW 'BOUT THAT—City Council candidates this year will be running for election or re-election on day of days, April Fool's Day, April 1, which happens to be the first Tuesday of the month.

Public officials in towns this size who exercise their integrity deserve considerably more than their minor honorariums. But somehow, the public thinks their work should all but be voluntary.

As Cameron grows, its citizens will see the wisdom of some kind of expense account at least for the Mayor and Councilmen who give much time and effort toward public service improvements out of their own pockets.

It should not be so and cannot be so too many more years. All the activities underway will generate continuing growth that will require continuing devotion of time in greater quantities.

Most of the pay voluntary public officials get on city councils and school boards is criticism and some of that bitter.

Some would say that is the "price of progress." There is always a high price paid for real progress.

Other winners of the Quarterback Club honor have been:

First Lady Parson

Meet The Rev. Miss . . .

"Did you say you were the Methodist minister's wife?"

"No, I'm the Methodist minister."

"Oh?"

A common confusion for The Rev. Sharon McIntyre, pastor of the Thorndale and Milano Methodist churches. She is the only "lady parson" in the Texas Conference of the Methodist Church and the first to have a full pastorate.

Though the status is hard to live with at times, she puts it down to balancing the ledger on a job she loves.

How does a vivacious, attractive, young college girl from Brenham, Texas decide to buck the tide and set course for the pastoral ministry?

It wasn't a decision made easily. Rev. McIntyre said, "I thought at first that I wanted to work in educational fields of the Church, but later realized that what satisfied me most and challenged me was the full scope of the church—the pastoral ministry." Setting the pace in her family were her brother, a Methodist minister in Houston, and a brother-in-law, a Lutheran chaplain in San Francisco, California.

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. - I received my tax forms in the mail but my son didn't. Why is that? He started working last summer and taxes are being taken out of his wages.

A. - A tax return is mailed to everyone who filed a return for the previous year. Your son would therefore not receive a tax form if he started working in 1968 as you indicate.

Copies of the 1968 tax forms and instructions are available at local IRS offices as well as many post offices and banks.

Q. - If I file my 1968 return by the end of January can I forget about the fourth installment of my estimated tax.

A. - Yes, if you file your 1968 return by January 31 paying any balance due at that time. But don't forget that 1969 declarations must be filed by April 15.

Q. - Last year I sold some stock I had received from my father's estate. Do I have to pay tax on this money?

A. - You will only have to include in income any increase between the value of the stock at the time your father died and what you sold it for.

The amount of the increase will have to be reported as a capital gain on Schedule D. However, if the stock decreased in value the loss may be used to reduce any other capital gains you might have reported for 1968. If you have capital gains, you may deduct your loss not in excess of $1,000 of return. For details see the instructions on Schedule D.

Q. - I got married last year and my wife and I both received 50 tax packages. If we file a joint return, whose label should we put on the form, mine or hers?

A. - On joint returns the account is primarily identified by the husband's social security number. Therefore, file the return with your label adding your wife's name to it but be sure also to enter your wife's social security number on the return in the space provided for it.

Q. - Are farmers subject to the surcharge?

A. - Yes, they, like all income taxpayers, are subject to the tax surcharge.

Q. - I can't find the W-2 form I got from my summer job. What should I do?

A. - Contact your former employer and ask him for a duplicate copy of your W-2 statement.

Q. - Is it true that if I have less than $100 a year in dividends I don't have to report them on my tax return?

A. - All the dividends you receive should be reported but generally the first $100 in dividends is not subject to tax.

New Color TVs Need Adjustment

Most color television sets require special "setting up" color adjustments in the home before they function satisfactorily, reports a home management specialist with the Extension Service.

This service should be part of the purchase price of the set, says Wanda Meyer at Texas A&M. She says here is how to check if the serviceman has done his job:

Purity-Tune in a black-and-white picture with a variety of shading but little action. Set the picture for moderate contrast. If, at six or eight feet, you see pronounced blotches of color with irregular outlines, purity is off.

Convergence-The convergence needs adjustment if, from normal viewing distance, you see colored outlines around objects in a black-and-white picture.

Tracking-The slight color tint of the background in a black-and-white picture should be the same throughout, often grayish blue. If the tint varies across the picture-to green, for example, or to pink-the tracking is out of adjustment.

Focus-Viewed at a distance of a foot or two, the horizontal scanning lines should be clearly visible and of uniform thickness. If the serviceman cannot get good focus, your picture tube may be defective.

Tuning Accuracy-If your set has a special device to make fine tuning easier, you can check it against your own manual fine tuning. Select a fairly strong station and fine-tune so you get a sharp picture. Then move the control slightly until the picture just appears to "worm" and move it back again to sharp.

Your tuning indicator should not be at its optimum position. If your set has Automatic Frequency Control, switch it off for this test. After you've tuned, switch on the AFC. It should make no changes in picture sharpness.

Never More Fascinating . . .

Lyndon Johnson has returned to Texas and the Nixon Administration is inaugurated, touched by some Texas political names like Will Wilson and the mention of defeated gubernatorial candidate Paul Eggers.

Governor Preston Smith fulfilled his life-long dream while Mr. Johnson's ended. And Lt.-Gov. Ben Barnes continued his amazing rise as Texas' historic vote gatherer and legislative administrator.

The immense effort of the Johnson Years more than justifies his closing comment of that State of the Union address in which the Texas President said, "We tried."

President Nixon will have much "trying" to give form to the gargantuan proliferate of social legislation produced in the past four years. And in foreign affairs, the Nixon trial will be to gain substantive points after stalling tactics over conference table shapes began in Paris last spring.

If Mr. Johnson could not contain Ho Chi Minh and Charles DeGaulle, he could achieve momentous redirection of domestic America through the Congress. And President Nixon for at least two years will contend with a Johnson-oriented Capitol Hill, even on the GOP side of the aisles.

President Nixon's inaugural emphasized calm and unity, the low key essential to a time of political threat and assassination, domestic division and Vietnam stalemate.

Both the new President and the Texas Governor emphasized justice and law enforcement in their first public statements in their new offices. Lyndon Johnson's domestic scene will receive refinement and control at the national and state levels. It is what people want and what the country needs.

But the example of the Johnson Years, knowing no precedent except the Jacksonian Years of the 1830's, is toward greater education and opportunity for the less privileged. And this example is justified by the times and the responsibilities of a nation sending men to the moon, and soon, beyond.

President Nixon must contain the rocket ride of Johnsonian legislation, even with some Texans helping. And it will be more peaceful for a time, but never more fascinating.

Realizing Potential . . .

While Administrations change, old towns realizing their potential, like Cameron, continue.

Study is underway on zoning parts of Cameron that will undergo change while the City Council has voted the first stage of incorporating Northwest Cameron.

Work is scheduled on additional tie-down space at Cameron Airport.

Cameron's urban renewal board is working on refinements and zoning of a comprehensive plan for the city.

Royal Seating Corp. is scheduled to begin operation about February 1 even as the $106,000 water and sewer project reaches Industrial Blvd. and new industry.

Walled Lake Door is soon to begin expansion of present facilities while another industrial plant is scheduled.

A 24-house sub-division is being laid out while Cameron's housing problems are being surveyed.

An interior remodeling of Milam Courthouse is underway, providing more office and storage space for county officials and records, sorely needed.

The street paving and curbing program continues, about one third of the 100 block program.

Drive for a new St. Edward Hospital is over the 60 percent mark toward a spring groundbreaking.

Downtown expansion and modernization continue at one institution and others in adjacent blocks.

The realization is here that Cameron can do what modern people require of a modern small city.

What Others Say . . . Prejudices We Deny . . .

Prejudice is not only expressed—often unintentionally, even subconsciously—but also perpetuated by the words chosen in speaking and writing. To get it out of our systems as well as out of our minds will be in a major part a work of language. So a committee of 10 experts assembled in Paris under the aegis of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization urges some sweeping reforms of terminologies used by teachers, mass media and, as the Associated Press puts it, "others dealing with race." In the same report the word "race" is singled out by the UN panel for use with particular care since its scientific validity is questionable.

"Negro," "primitive," "savage," "backward," "colored" and "uncivilized" would all be banned by the panel of experts as "contemptuous, unjust or inadequate" relics of colonialism . . . "So charged with emotive potential that their use . . . generally provoked an adverse reaction" among those sought to be described. The panel further suggests that new countries should be termed "developing" rather than "underdeveloped"; that the word "natives" should be shunned in favor of "inhabiitants"; and that "paganism" should be replaced by more precise words such as "Moslems" and "animists."

If the panel at Paris has done nothing else, it has served to call attention to how pervasive and insidious are the postures of prejudice, even among those who maintain most vigorously—often angrily—that they are unprejudiced. It is next to impossible to get many Americans to understand that "In God We Trust" on coins is an affront and an act of exclusion to those of faiths in which the Supreme Being is called by another name than "God"—or that the same is true of a Christmas tree in a place belonging to all the people; unless of course similar attention is to be given to holy days of religions other than the Christian.

The prejudices that are expressed as matter-of-fact and unquestionable are perhaps the most impervious. All of us are prejudiced and in many ways. Honest admission of it, and particularly of those ways of which we are unaware, could be the first and most constructive step toward ridding ourselves of it, bit by painful bit.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Protecting Fish Game
Game makers in a coastal state, sued about overfishing in tidal waters, passed a law forbidding use of large nets. Fishermen challenged the law on the ground that there were "still a lot of fish in the sea."

the court held the law valid. The resource is inexhaustible," the court. "We think the proper hand of the state may be placed before the danger is imminent. The state is interested not only in the preservation of species for museums but in preserving a constant supply."

and game on public property belonging to the public as a whole. To prevent a disorderly free-for-all, the state—as trustee for the public—has broad powers of regulation.

For example, the state has wide discretion in imposing penalties. In one case a man arrested for illegal possession of 2,000 ducks drew a fine of $20,000—$10 per duck.

"That big a fine is unconstitutional," he protested in appealing to a higher court. "It amounts to 'cruel and unusual' punishment."

But the court held that the state was merely making the punishment fit the crime. The judge said the severity of the sentence was "the fault not of the law but of the infractor."

Furthermore, in proving its case, the state does not necessarily have to catch a violator red-handed. Thus, it may make the mere possession of certain types of fishing and hunting equipment "prima facie" evidence of illegal fishing or hunting, shifting onto the defendant the burden of proving his innocence.

Nevertheless, if the evidence is too flimsy, the court will dismiss the case. Take this situation:

Game wardens, halting a car near a lake, found four men with fishing licenses and a fifth man without. The four said they had indeed been fishing, but they all insisted the fifth man had not.

Was his mere presence in the car enough to convict him of fishing without a license? The court said no, because that would be punishing him on the basis of highly circumstantial evidence.

In other words, the fisherman and the hunter must accept the law's restraints in the spirit of public interest; but the law, in turn, must apply those restraints in the spirit of good sportsmanship.

A MAN NAMED SMITH Dateline Austin . . . Liquor Legalizers Want Voters To Decide Issue

AUSTIN
Sponsors of unsuccessful 1968 efforts to legalize liquor by the drink in Texas will take another tack this session. Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso and Rep. Cletus Davis of Houston will propose that a constitutional amendment on the question of open bars be submitted to Texas voters.

And since Gov. Preston Smith endorsed the constitutional amendment approach in his campaign platform and the State Democratic Party platform, he is expected to support the Christie-Davis plan.

Senator Christie feels that a "sure enough" mixed - drink bill would have better chance of passage by the Legislature than Gov. John Connally's "mini-bottle" bill had last summer, if it would take effect only on statewide voter approval.

But he and Representative Davis are bound to hear arguments that while a referendum on the subject won over a majority of voters in the 1966 primary election, the majority came from big - city residents, and less counties went for the proposition than against.

TAX POLICY RECOMMENDED

Texas Committee on State and Local Tax Policy, headed by House Tax and Revenue Committee Chairman Ben Atwell of Dallas, came out with some suggestions for providing the $343 million or so the state will need in new revenue over the next two years, but said it would not make formal recommendation.

Possible sources listed include personal and corporate income taxes, increasing the 3 percent state sales tax, removing the sales tax exemption on food and taxing certain services.

Committee estimated that a modest personal-income tax (such as Oklahoma's) alone would reap some $370 million a year.

APPOINTMENTS

Governor Connally—as much as four years behind on some appointments—did his best to catch up as the twelfth hour of his term of office came and went. Some of his last-minute appointments were:

Walter Bassano of Paris, Wales Madden Jr. of Amarillo, William Hunter McLean of Fort Worth and O. H. Elliott, Fred Moore and Will Davis, all of Austin, to the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, and reappointment of Dr. G. V. Brindley Jr. of Temple.

Mrs. Nancy Sayers of Austin to chairmanship of Employment Commission—fulfilling a 1962 campaign promise by Connally to put a woman on the Commission -- and reappointment of J. Ed Lyles of Austin as labor member of TEC.

Dr. Ralph Cohen of Longview Dr. Salvador Mora of Laredo and Dr. Sidney Freid of Lubbock to the State Board of Examiners in Optometry.

W. R. Bryan of Sherman to the Interstate Compact Commission for the Red River.

O. T. Moore Jr. of Lockhart to Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority.

W. D. Corder of Burnet, M. C. Dalcchau of Llano and Sam K. Seymour Jr. of Columbus to Lower Colorado River Authority.

Dr. Melvin E. Garrett of Waco to the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners.

Jack Balagia of Austin to the State Judicial Qualifications Commission.

Jenkins Garrett of Fort Worth and Dan C. Williams of Dallas to the University of Texas System Board of Regents and reappointment of Frank C. Erwin of Austin as chairman of that board.

Robert Sartwell and Ben Blanton, both of Houston, to the San Jacinto Historical Advisory Committee.

Reagan Cartwright of Houston as judge of the 55th judicial district.

Ford Albritton Jr. of Bryan, L. F. Peterson of Fort Worth and Dr. A. P. Beutel of Lake Jackson to new terms as Texas A&M University regents.

Dr. Mario Ramirez of Roma to the Tuberculosis Advisory Committee.

Mrs. F. Howard Walsh of Fort Worth to the Texas Fine Arts Commission.

Henry X. Saulzberger and John M. Turner, both of Dallas, to the State Commission for the Blind.

Louis Pittard, Gouldbusk, and Y. B. Johnson, Coleman, to Central Colorado River Authority.

John M. Gray of Dallas to Trinity River Authority Board.

George Gillespie of Hitchcock and Paul Santire of Galveston to Board of Pilot Commissioners for ports of Galveston and Texas City.

Carlton Farris of McAllen and A. M. Hervey of San Benito to Board of Directors of Rio Grande Valley Pollution Control Authority.

Mrs. Emily M. Whiteside of Austin, new associate director of Texas Fine Arts Commission.

JOB EDUCATION PLANS

Senate Committee on Vocational-Technical Education has proposed a broad program for expanding vocational and technical education in Texas.

Nine key recommendations of the Committee, which conducted a series of public hearings include:

Updating and expansion of public school programs together with technical and technological education and pre-vocational instruction; placing the administration under a Deputy Commissioner for Occupational Education and Technology under Board of Education; creation of an advisory council of 21 on vocational education; continuation of James Connally Technical Institute near Waco and creation of several other similar institutions; adequate funding for school and junior college job programs; counselor training; a co-operative secondary junior college program; licensing and regulation of private trade schools and continuation of the senate study committee.

SPECIAL ELECTION TALK

After the Legislature began recovering from the shock of the death of Rep. Dave C. Howard of Uvalde, speculation started about possible candidates for his 49th District place in the House.

Representative Howard died in Austin of a heart attack after the first day of his second session in the Legislature. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes said, "I knew him as a dedicated public servant, fine gentleman and friend who will be missed in legislative halls." Governor Connally called him "a man of high honor and integrity."

TEXAS WATER PLAN

House Water Study Committee headed by Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake will ask the rest of the Legislature to submit a $3.5 - billion bond issue to Texas voters, to help finance the Texas Water Development Board's $10-billion Texas Water Plan.

Committee will make a generalized endorsement of the statewide water plan and has asked the private, non-profit Texas Research League to make a study of some sort of special tax which could be levied and dedicated to paying interest and principal on Water Development Board bonds while they are waiting for water uses to develop and help pay off the loans.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

Three items in one newspaper that turned up out here on this Johnson grass farm yesterday have convinced me that the saying, "Nothing succeeds like success," should be changed to "Nothing fails like success."

One item reported that the Saturday Evening Post, with the largest circulation in its 175-year history, is closing down because it's busted. It had so many subscribers and such a shortage of advertising it couldn't make ends meet. It even tried cutting 3 million subscribers off, but still it didn't work.

Another item reported that college football, breaking all attendance records at higher ticket prices, is losing money, and some coaches are arguing they ought to go back to one-plateau football where one player plays on both offense and defense. Like it is, it takes four teams, two for offense, two for defense.

The third item reported that the U. S. Post Office Department is getting so much business it's in worse shape than football or the Saturday Evening Post. The more business it gets, the more money it loses.

I have thought of one-plateau mailing, where it's all right to get a letter but against the law to answer it, and while this would cut down on volume all right, some soreheads would object.

I don't know what the answer is, but Congress ought to get to work on the problem as soon as it gets its salary raised and other routine business out of the way. It's bad enough to lose the Saturday Evening Post, but we can't have the Post Office shutting down too.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Tips From Tippet

Have you ever been irked by a so-called "slow poke" driver and wondered what to do about it?

Of course, most drivers have, many times. And it is common belief that slow drivers often are responsible for many highway accidents.

If so, his accomplice is the impatient driver.

There are two things to be done about slow drivers. One is to slow down yourself, take it easy, and wait out the little jam up. Stay clear, and watch out for the impatient car coming around behind.

Don't be in a big hurry to get hurt.

The other possibility is to signal the slower driver and ask for a clear roadway, when it is practical for him to give it.

The law says that "No person shall drive at a speed so slow as to impede the normal and reasonable movement of traffic, except when it is necessary for safe operation or to comply with the law."

Any way you look at it, it's best to keep cool, wait out the pile-up. Who's in such a hurry anyhow? The hospital can wait.

REMOVES RUST—Automotive valve compound is excellent for removing rust or corrosion from fishing tackle. Unlike sandpaper or steel wool, valve compound will not scar or scratch the metal it is excellent for cleaning rod ferrules that stick.

Outdoor Tips-

DEFLATE TIRES-When driving down the beach to surf fish, carry along a hand pump or inflation cartridge. If you get stuck in soft sand, let most of the air out of the rear tires. Extra traction will get you out. Then, of course, you'll have to use that pump or cartridge to bring tire pressure back to the normal driving level.

BBs FOR BREEM-Here's a trick to use to stir bass and bream into action when the lake surface is dead calm. Just flip some BBs into the water. The "plip" sound of the BB striking the water is much like that of fish feeding on the surface. This tempts the curious fish into action. A few BBs at a time is enough. A handful all at once will cause too much noise and spook the fish.

HANDY REFLECTOR- If you don't have a large white cardboard that will reflect the sun's rays to provide "fill-in" light for a photo of your trophy fish or game, try using aluminum foil. Carry along a roll of foil for this purpose. Have your partner hold the foil so that light reflected from it will brighten the subject of your photo. The same foil that mama uses to wrap fish in will do the job fine.

Wise Shoppers Save On Food

By Christine Laws

Are you a wise food shopper? Test yourself against these habits. A wise food shopper knows the nutritional needs for her family and the difference between needs and wants.

She keeps track of regular food prices so she can recognize "specials". She knows food grades and buys quality to fit intended use: perfect pieces and top grades if eye-appeal is important, broken pieces if it is not.

She tries lesser-known brands in an effort to find acceptable quality at lower prices and she buys favorite foods for future use when they are abundant and offered at lower than usual prices.

She figures cost-per-day serving as well as cost-per-unit purchased. All her good habits add up to a better fed family at lower cost.

Older women use frozen main courses to add variety to meals while younger married women use them as a convenient way to increase the number of meal offerings for her family.

The family with a working woman is 18 percent more likely to use frozen main courses compared to the family where just the husband works. Thirty percent of these families used TV dinners.

Spices and herbs lose their true flavor and aroma if kept for too long a period of time. Extension foods and nutrition specialists advise to check those tag ends of spices and herbs by giving them a sniff test. You'll probably find the remnants of their characteristic aroma. But compare the old supply with a newly purchased stock and you'll quickly become aware of the difference in freshness and strength. To keep all spices and herbs fresh longer, close containers promptly after each use and store away from heat and direct sunlight.

If a few drops of lemon juice are required for a recipe, just stick a fork in one end of a lemon and squeeze out the needed juice instead of cutting the whole lemon in half.

Add a cup of crushed corn flakes to a favorite chocolate chip cookie recipe for an extra crisp cookie.

Try a new flavor for pot roasts or meat loaves by basting them during cooking with the spiced vinegar left over from canned sweet pickles.

Did you ever wonder what makes butter yellow. It's carotene. That's a yellow pigment that's very rich in vitamin A. Your body converts it into vitamin A and stores it until needed. Vitamin A is an absolute "must" for growth, healthy skin, and the maintenance of healthy tissues for resistance to infection. And butter is especially rich in vitamin A because it contains the vitamin both in its natural form and in the form of the yellow pigment, carotene.

Yoemen Down Caldwell, 57-54; Fall To Elgin Wildcats, 49-36

The Cameron Yoemen downed the Caldwell Hornets Friday night in Yoe gym, 57-54 to bring their district record in 19-AA basketball to 1-1. Hearn took the Yoemen in last week's district opener.

Jerry Richardson scored 17 points to lead Yoeman scoring and Robert Brashear had 14. High man for the Hornets was Jewell Dearman with 17.

Caldwell took the Yoe junior varsity 52-32. Norman Trubee scored 10 points for Cameron. Mike Arnold and Willie Manus each scored 15 for Caldwell.

In Tuesday night's district action at Elgin, the Yoemen fell to the Elgin Wildcats, 49-36. Elgin is now

MISS REV. ... SCHOOL-

Miss McIntyre applied for entrance to SMU's Perkins School of Theology in Dallas.

Was she discouraged from entering the ministry?

"No one really encouraged me," Miss McIntyre said. "My Professors accepted me more readily than my fellow students. There were three women students at Perkins while I was there, one is working in a church in Oklahoma and one is going into teaching."

Theology school behind her, she was appointed to work as an associate pastor under a longtime friend, Rev. Walter McFerguson at A&M Methodist Church, College Station. This was not such a departure from the norm there was one other woman associate minister in the Texas Conference at the time.

She said some inferred that the Bishop chose a post at an all-male school in an attempt to avoid the problem of a woman pastor by side tracking her with marriage. Actually Rev. McIntyre had requested the A&M Church because of Rev. McFerguson. It proved to be a continuation of her training for the full ministry under the tutorage of an old friend.

How does a church respond?

The Thorndale Church was asked if they would accept the idea of a woman as pastor. They agreed to the challenge and in June the Rev. Miss McIntyre moved in with ideas about the Church as a part of the community, and youth in an active role. Six months later, she is still enthusiastic about the youth in her church. She even has the energy for things like an all-night planning session with the teenagers. She also feels an acceptance in her new home.

Problems?

"It takes adjustments on all sides," she explained. "Such as being both minister at the church and housekeeper at the parsonage. The congregation has to accept the fact that sometimes the dishes don't get washed or the furniture dusted."

On the other side, a helping hand at times of trouble or sorrow seem a traditional roll for women and are a big part of the pastors work. Education and WSCS are also on the plus side for a woman pastor.

Besides, now Thorndale can probably claim the distinction as starting point for the first trail ride that included an ordained "lady parson".

Winds up to 260 miles per hour were clocked during the Wichita Falls tornado of April 2, 1953 by the U. S. Weather Bureau's experimental Doppler radar equipment.

Most of the communities in Texas which need to combine their resources for the provision of a good educational program are located in the more densely settled areas of the state. Most of them are no more than 10 to 15 miles apart. Even if the newly organized district does not decide to construct a centrally located high school, few students would have more than 30 minutes added to their present bus schedules. Texas already has 40 county-wide school districts which have long since solved their transportation problems, often through the operation of "shuttle-bus" systems which do not require time-consuming "round-trip" or "loop" routes.

In its report, the Committee has recognized that sparsity may be a factor in some areas of the state. For this reason, we recommended that school districts either be countywide in size or contain at least 2,600 students. Of the 219 suggested countywide units, 48 would have fewer than 1,000 students and 71 would have fewer than 1,600. In school districts of this size (where further consolidation is impractical) we have proposed the expenditure of up to $1,000 per student in an effort to provide a comprehensive program.

2,600 ADA

The Committee's suggested standard of 2,600 children in average daily attendance would not produce unreasonably large high schools. The average district of this size enrolls about 890 students in the top four grades. These are the schools which play AAA Interscholastic League sports—in towns like Carthage, Kerrville, Athens, Lamesa and Gainesville. There is no evidence that such schools have any more problems with drop-outs and delinquency than do their smaller neighbors. But there is ample proof that they are able to provide a program broad enough to fit the needs of a wide variety of students—something the smaller schools simply cannot do.

In 1960, about 31 percent of Texas' population lived in non-metropolitan areas. By 1980, fewer than one in five of our people will reside in the small towns and rural areas of this state. This rapid population shift has wiped out about 100 school districts just since our Committee began its study. The rate of attrition is apt to be even higher in the next decade because of the substantial decline in birth rates. The members of our Committee believe that the best defense which rural and small town communities can make to offset this trend is through combining their resources in a broader community base. A first class school system is one of the first requirements most parents make in deciding where they will live and work.

Our Committee is equally convinced that the primary consideration of an educational system must be the present and future welfare of the student. No community has the right to exploit its children for the social or economic benefit of its adults. And no community has the right to offer an inferior educational opportunity to students who will soon be citizens of some distant city.

Next Week: Jaworski discusses equalization of local financial support and the cost of state participation.

Dairy Industry Sees Production Rising In Texas

COLLEGE STATION — The Texas dairy industry is growing, according to Dairy Herd Improvement Association figures for 1968.

The report, prepared by J. W. Davis, Extension dairy specialist with Texas A&M University, shows that the average dairy herd has almost doubled from the 57.5 average of 1958 to 97.4 cow years in 1968.

During the same period, the average milk yield per cow rose from 8,112 to 11,156 pounds per year.

The average yearly milk per herd more than doubled from 466,440 pounds to 1,086,594 pounds per year for the ten-year period, and the average daily milk per herd went from 1,278 to 2,976 pounds. Butterfat per herd increased from 19,550 to 39,837 pounds.

Butterfat per cow went from 340 to 409 pounds per year during the 1958-68 decade, and the daily butterfat average went from 53.6 to 97.4 pounds.

The statistics for the ten years were tabulated from annual reports of the DHIA's test year ending Sept. 30, 1968. The comparisons are made to show the progress made through the DHIA, Davis pointed out.

Ebbby J. Traweck, Dublin, had the high milk herd in 1968 with 45.3 cow years producing 16,475 pounds of milk and 593 pounds of fat. J. Chester Elliff of Tulsa owned the high fat herd with 85.5 cow years producing 11,574 pounds of milk and 658 pounds of butterfat.

Davis said that of the cows on test in 1968, 73.9 percent were Holstein, 13.4 percent Jersey and 7.7 percent were other breeds.

The past statewide results are good yardsticks by which dairy producers can make their own comparisons. All records should be complete, accurate and used in making management decisions, the specialist stressed. Records can show the producer which cows to cull, how to make better decisions in management and breeding.

Luncheon Marks Retirement Of 3 TIC Members

AUSTIN — Gov. Preston Smith makes one of his first public appearances as Texas' highest-ranking official Friday, Jan. 24, at a luncheon honoring three retiring members of the Texas Industrial Commission.

Smith will deliver the principal address at the luncheon at the Villa Capri. All legislators have been invited to attend the event honoring retiring Chairman Ray Horton of Houston, and members J. B. McDuff of Burnet and Leslie Burnett of Dallas.

Smith is expected to use the occasion to discuss his plans for industrial development during his tenure of office. He has long been an advocate of industrial development with particular emphasis on smaller communities.

Horton's departure from the Commission will mark the end of an era. He has served on the body since its creation in 1958 and has held the chairmanship since May 1965.

During his years of service, Texas industry has increased in record proportions. A 15-year goal for industrial growth set upon creation of the agency is already 90 percent complete and will be reached almost six years ahead of time.

Immediately following the luncheon, which is expected to attract industrial leaders from throughout the Commission will also be held its first meeting of 1969 and the first session under incoming officers.

New leaders for the body to be introduced at the luncheon are Chester Wine of Corpus Christi, chairman; Claude Brown of McCamey, vice-chairman; and Warren Woodward of Dallas, secretary.

Two newly appointed members of the Commission will also be making their first appearance. They are Mac M. Stripling, a Nacogdoches attorney; and Joe M. Haggard, Sr. of Dallas, president of Haggard Slacks Co.

4-H CLUB ACTIVITIES

By Fred Schuetze

The annual Milam County Junior Livestock Show was held January 11 in Cameron, and the 4-H youth with projects represented 4-H work in the county real well. I wish to congratulate each of those who participated in the show on a job well done. I also want to thank all the 4-H'ers and adult leaders who worked in the concession stand for they also did a fine job.

4-H'ers will now do the final steps to get their livestock ready for the major stock shows they will attend in February.

Keep up the good work 4-H'ers for only with many hours of work can your rewards be received.

HAY QUALITY IN '69

It depends mainly, says Neal Pratt, Extension agronomist, on two factors—ample fertilization of the hay fields and harvesting the crop before it reaches the mature stage. Too, he adds, adequate rainfall, as was the case in 1968, would materially aid production. He suggests a soil test now to determine fertilizer and lime needs.

4-H'ERS LIVE IN TOWN, TOO

Tom Davison, assistant state 4-H leader at Texas A&M University, says that out of the current state enrollment of more than 83,000 4-H members approximately 36 percent have urban addresses. Another 34 percent live on farms or ranches and the remaining 30 percent are rural non-farm youths.

County Agent's Notes . . .

Poultrymen Will Meet January 28

By J. D. Moore

Milam county poultrymen are urged to mark their calendars for a meeting to be held in the conference room of the Rockdale State Bank, January 28, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Merrill F. Ranck, professor of veterinary microbiology at A&M will discuss poultry diseases and medication; Dr. David Mellor will discuss poultry marketing; and Ben Wormeli will discuss poultry production problems.

Chamber of Commerce members and agribusiness people are reminded that poultry brings in a sizeable county income. County estimates show that some $2,242,250 was realized as income in 1968 from the sale of market eggs, hatching eggs, baby chicks, started pullets and old birds.

Farm management authorities recommend that agricultural enterprise returns be considered closely in making management decisions. We suspect that a started pullet operation in the county gave the highest labor return of any agricultural enterprise during 1968.

The teaching of farm management decisions as well as marketing has been greatly neglected

GRAZING SYSTEMS

Grazing Systems for Profitable Ranching is the title of a new publication recently released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. A good system of grazing system, say the authors, can be defined as manipulating animals to obtain maximum sustained livestock and forage production at a low cost. Copies are available from local county agents.

ASCS

By Alva E. Sanders

The ASCS Office has been advised of some key provisions of the 1969 feed grain program and they are as follows:

1. Required acreage diversion to conserving use to qualify for price support loans and payments is continued at 20 percent of a farmer's base acreage of corn, sorghum, and barley. No diversion payments will be made for this minimum diversion, except for small base farms—the same as in 1966-68.

2. Additional acreage diversion will be possible up to a total of 50 percent of the base or 25 acres, whichever is larger, the same as in 1968. The acreage diversion payment rate will be at 45 percent of the total price support times the projected yield.

3. As in 1966-68 a farm with a base of 25 acres or less will get payment on the first 20 percent acreage diversion at 20 percent of the total support rate times yield, and at the regular 45 percent payment rate on the remaining acreage diverted to a conserving use. Producers with feed grain base acreage up to 125 acres will have the option of temporarily reducing this base down to 25 acres and still be eligible for the small farm provision on condition that no corn, grain sorghum or barley will be planted for harvest on the farm and the 25 acres are diverted to conserving use.

Signup will be conducted simultaneously for feed grain, cotton, and wheat from Feb. 3 through March 21.

All wool producers who sold wool or unshorn lambs during the 1968 marketing year are reminded that they have until January 31, 1969, to file applications for the incentive wool program payments.

Traffic Safety Program Set For Buckholts High School Students

Students of Buckholts High School will have an opportunity on January 28 to see for themselves how a driver's false sense of security can lead into danger and trouble, Supt. Leon L. Brady said today. Some students will actually participate in driving tests, he said.

Ben Bullard of Waco, assistant safety director for the Texas Farm Bureau, will present a two-part demonstration at 1:30 p.m. at the school the first part will consist of a brief talk and film on traffic safety, then Bullard will present a reaction and braking demonstration on the street south of the school.

High point of the demonstration will come when driving tests are made with various students and faculty members in a specially equipped car. An electric detonator mounted on the front bumper of the car will fire yellow paint bullets to indicate the distance required to stop the car in an emergency.

The driver being tested will be signalled to stop by the report of the first shell. The second will be fired automatically when the brake is applied, and the third when the car halts. Distance between the spots of paint will then be measured to determine the reaction, braking, and total stopping distances.

Tests will be limited to 20, 30, and 40 mile per hour speeds because of the danger of making emergency stops at higher speeds. Police officers will be used as drivers in the high speed tests.

As part of a program for safety on the highway, the Texas Farm Bureau Safety Department presents this driving demonstration approximately 150 times for an average of 35,000 students each year.

Over 900 programs have been given since 1957. The program being brought to Buckholts under the sponsorship of the Texas County Farm Bureau. The public is invited to attend.

Tuesday, Jan. 28 - Chili con macaroni and tomatoes, peas, beans, celery stix, fruit cup, milk.

TALK TO TALK WITH Indiscriminately if you are a careful speaker.

To TALK TO a person is to direct one's remarks to him without necessarily expecting a reply.

To TALK WITH a person, one exchanges remarks with him. And remember—one should always say, "May I talk WITH Mrs. . . .?" etc. TALK TO would be to lecture, etc.

Cyclone, Marak Churches Plan Renewal Program

The Rev. Rocco Perone will conduct a Spiritual Renewal Program at St. Joseph's Church in Cyclone and at the mission church in Marak from January 26 through 31.

The first session in each church will be primarily for teenagers, though adults will be welcome. A talk will be given on The New Morality, followed by a color movie and an open discussion.

Other topics to be discussed during the week include: Freedom, Authority and Conscience; Christian Love is the Answer - What is the Question? and A New Look at Confession. Each sermon will be followed by an open discussion in which all may participate. The missionary will also be available for daily confessions and for personal spiritual counseling.

Father Perone is a native of Hartford, Conn., and was ordained in 1949. He is a member of the Paulists, a society of priests engaged in parish work, Newman Clubs, publishing, teaching and mission activity throughout the United States and Canada.

The Rev. Harry Bilski, pastor of the church, said he invited the Paulists to conduct the parish renewal "because of their experience in dialogue with Protestant and Orthodox Christians and their keen sympathy with the problems of modern-day Catholics."

Services are open to all who wish to attend. The Mission Service will be held in Cyclone on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening at 7 and at Marak the Mission will be conducted on Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday evening at 7.

SU Profs Teaching High School Students In Special Program

GEORGETOWN

A special course program taught by Southwestern University professors for Georgetown Independent School District students is now in session at the University.

A total of 34 high school juniors and seniors are enrolled in courses in mathematics and psychology and the instructors from the University include four Ph.D. holders.

Twenty of the youngsters are enrolled in psychology, while the remaining 14 are taking a mathematics course.

The students began the course on Jan. 13 and the classes will run throughout the high school's spring semester.

Cost of the program is $51 per student, with the school district bearing half the cost and the students paying the other half.

The school district has made arrangements to pay the full amount for students unable to pay their half of the cost.

The students attend classes Monday through Friday, with instructors teaching on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and library and study work on Tuesday and Thursday. The students receive library cards and privileges together with the course.

The students receive a half-year high school credit for the work.

IRS Offers Tables For Deductions On Local Sales Taxes

Taxpayers in many Texas cities will be able to take additional deductions on their Federal tax returns for local sales taxes, according to R. L. Phinney, District Director of Internal Revenue. Phinney said that 279 cities in Texas voted a local sales tax in 1968, effective on four different dates: January 1; April 1; July 1; and October 1. Cameron's sales tax became effective April 1.

As a service to those taxpayers who itemize their deductions on page 2 of Form 1040, the IRS has prepared four sales tax tables for these cities to coincide with the effective date of their local sales taxes. These tables, with an affected by them, are available at all IRS offices.
